About This Certified Course

The Institution of Occupational Safety and Health (IOSH) declare that workplace mental health is now a safety issue.

A number of factors have combined in the EU member States of Ireland and the United Kingdom which will determine how employers will respond to workplace mental health. Workplace mental health is now a safety issue. The Institution of Occupational Safety and Health (IOSH) have taken the lead and are declaring that workplace mental health is now a safety issue and that its members are well placed to respond.

Focus on compliance, risk assessments and employee support therapy.

IOSH Magazine's March 2019 issue focused on evaluating employee assistance programmes and implementing structured wellbeing programmes. IOSH is urging its members to think safety, compliance, risk assessments, and employee support therapy to address the mental health issues that are now impacting the workplace.

Certified Training Certificate of attendance presented by the EAP Institute will be sent by post. The full course notes and the PowerPoint will be sent by email.

Continuing Professional Development Awards

Professional Development Hours (P.D.H.'s) will be awarded by the Employee Assistance Certification Commission (EACC) for attendance.

IOSH CPD Points

The Institution of Occupational Safety and Health (IOSH) members will be able to allocate CPD points to the course at the rate of 3 points per course day.
